Grace Church Ladies.

The Home Mission Society of the Grace M. E. church gave a pretty entertainment last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rountree, on Green street. A musical program was rendered, songs and instrumental, by Misses Rosa Lee Delany, Flora Rountree, Mr. and Mrs. Roquemore and Miss McCatherine. The ladies told in verse how they had made their missionary money. This was greatly enjoyed. Refreshments were served and a most delightful evening passed. A large crowd was present and a nice sum realized.

Dance.

"The boys" complimented "the girls" with a dance Saturday afternoon at the city hall, from 3 to 6 o'clock. There were twelve regular and six extra dances; to the strains of sweet music the afternoon was danced away by the young folks. Mr. Ed Nay was floor manager, Mrs. Leland Douthit was chaperon.

Euchre Club.

Mrs. H. Horwitz entertained the Euchre Club last Thursday afternoon with three tables of euchre, complimentary to Mrs. L. Lyons of Yoakum. Little Doris Lucille Horwitz passed the score cards, and Mrs. L. Lyons of Yoakum punched. After the playing Mrs. H. Bloch was awarded the head prize, a hand-painted mayonnaise set. Mrs. A. Teah won the consolation, a china fruit basket. Miss Libbie Kline was presented the guest prize, a pretty handkerchief. Mrs. L. Lyons was presented the puncher's prize, a handsome fur. It seemed an afternoon of favors, the charming hostess presenting each guest with a resurrection plant as a souvenir of the occasion, and no doubt when they shall bring forth life in the spring they will wait sweet memories of the afternoon with Mrs. Horwitz. An elegant luncheon was served. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. L. Lyons of Yoakum and Miss Libbie Kline of Denver, Colo.
